PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Wow....how time flies when you're having FUN!! I can't believe it's already June. Spending the evenings dancing with you all brings Great JOY to my life. I can't speak about square dancing without bragging on what a wonderful group of people you are. I honestly believe our Triangles are the BEST! We are also blessed to have many friends whom we have met as we travel to other clubs and when they come to visit us. Let's keep reaching out to others, talk about square dancing and invite newcomers so this wonderful dance will continue growing and stay alive. My friends, it's all about sharing! Make an effort this summer to recruit students for our next lessons which start on Tuesday, September 12.

I appreciate, too, our members who attended the club business meeting Saturday, May 6. After that meeting we had a great lunch at the Smokehouse. Shouldn't we continue this "tradition" of lunch together after our quarterly business meetings?

Yellow rocks,
Donna Miller

SCHMIDTZ "AT THE HOP"

September 29 is your next opportunity to dance with your Schmitz cousins. The annual Schmitz Dance is our largest dance of the year and is held in the Denton Civic Center. Dance chairmen JoAn and Tommy Meyer will soon be calling on you for committee and sub-committee assignments. Start thinking about your door prize donations. Watch for holiday sales if you need to purchase an item to donate as a door prize. With lots of lead time, let's get creative with our costumes!

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Caller Toby, his wife, Judy, and one square of dances gave a demonstration of square and line dancing to the Oasis group of the First Baptist Church in Lewisville on May 18. Dancers were Joe and Pat Cadenhead; Joe and Donna Spears; Bob and Linda Lane; and Marsha Parr and Ed Ferguson. The Oasis group is made up of early and mid-stage Alzheimer's disease patients and their care givers. Music is a very important and positive part of their lives as they cope with this terrible disease.

CLUB SHIRTS AND JACKETS

At our May 6 meeting we discussed ordering short sleeved tee shirts or golf shirts in gold or black with our club logo. Some members asked about having the front logo on the right side or on the left side with placement being an option with each shirt. President Donna Miller will contact vendors to obtain price, color, and style availability. Watch your email for news. Many members really enjoy their black club jackets with the gold logo and stitched name. Let Donna know by email if you want to order a club jacket.
